

Do Not Call law in Indiana has been an effective measure in curbing unwanted telephone solicitations and provide significant protection to our right to privacy. I urge you not to lend credence to the Consumer Bankers efforts to negate this law. In the face of todays rampant consumerism and general mercenary motivations please protect our right to privacy in our own homes safe from unwanted intrusions. Thank you.